

Chun-An

Percussionist

Chun-An, Chuang is a Taiwanese percussionist and marimba solo musician.

Since 2011, she has successively won prizes at music competitions in Taiwan. At the end of 2018, she began her bachelor studies at the Rostock University of Music and Theatre.

During school, she not only learned classical orchestral percussion and solo skills, she also collaborated with the composition department to perform new music several times. In April 2023 she took part in “ Fernweh 6” new music project to perform in Bauzen and Lübau. She also accompanied the group “Percussion Community Rostock” many times to perform in different places, e.g. Leer, Bremen, Recknitz and Schwerin.

Her music is often described as highly contagious. For them, playing an instrument is a way of expressing feelings and thoughts. Cultural dialogue is also the nutrient that inspires her to play.
