

Lola Mercedes Wittstamm

Actress

Lola Mercedes Wittstamm was born in 1992. She spent her childhood in Wendland (Lower Saxony). After graduating from high school in 2011, she completed various theater internships and work shadowing and developed her own directing projects. In 2014, she began her acting studies at the Rostock University of Music and Drama. Her engagement led her to the children's and youth theater "theater junge generation" in Dresden in 2018. Since 2019, Lola Mercedes Wittstamm has been working as a freelance performer and director at permanent theaters and in the independent scene. Her work focuses on interdisciplinary projects and transformation processes, particularly in theatrical power structures. Lola Mercedes Wittstamm lives as a freelance actress and speaker in Berlin.