

Matthias Spehr

Filmmaker & Director

Matthias Spehr is a linguist and literary scholar and was a member of a research group on the diagnosis and promotion of artistic talent.

He has been making films since 1986 and since 1990 has also worked on many film projects in the field of media education at art schools and the Institute for New Media.

Awarded the Grand Prize of the Union Internationale du Cinéma, the MV State Culture Prize and the MV Media Competence Prize three times.

Independent filmmaker with an international festival presence.

Various award-winning artistic film projects, also in collaboration with students of the HMT Rostock, awards at world film festivals, German film festivals and film festivals.

Passionate cineaste, film club operator, festival initiator and curator as well as long-standing jury member in national and international film competitions.

Lecturer at the Rostock University of Music and Drama since 1995 in the Performing Arts Department, later at the Institute for Drama.

Decades of stage experience in political cabaret and in various world music bands as an actor, singer, musician and lyricist.